

There is a station that delivers positive and encouraging music daily to my entire family. I would hate to see an LPFM station come in and take its place. K-Love has been beneficial to our community as well as my personal family. Will you please consider keeping K-Love on the air.